

HOW TO HONOR ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

.....St. Michael was the protector and defender of God's chosen people. Now he is the defender of the Church and of all the Faithful, whom he defends against the constant assaults of the devil.

He is invoked in sickness and most especially at the hour of death, when his all-powerful help is so much needed, for then it is that Satan makes his last and fiercest attack on the Christian soul, seeking with craft and cunning, with fears and despair, to drag it down to Hell.

In the prayers traditionally said by the priest and people after the Latin Mass, there is a special and beautiful prayer to St. Michael imploring his help for the Church:

Prayer to St. Michael

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wiles and wickedness of the devil. Restrain him, O God, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into Hell Satan and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin and destruction of souls. Amen.

We should make it a special duty to join fervently in this important prayer, repeating it often each day.

In our morning and evening prayers, too, we invoke St. Michael when saying the Confiteor. This we should try to do with more devotion and confidence. Many do not even think of what they are saying when they recite these prayers!

We all must die, and we all must be prepared for the fierce attacks of the devil at that dreadful hour. Hence, every Christian should make sure of having St. Michael's help at the hour of death. This we can do by being devoted to the great Archangel St. Michael during our lives.

How to Honor St. Michael

1. Pray his litany.
2. Frequently repeat this short prayer:

O Glorious St. Michael, Prince of the Heavenly Court, pray for now and at the hour of death.

3. Invoke his aid in time of sickness.
4. By praying fervently to St. Michael if we find it hard to conquer a temptation or to correct some fault. He will assuredly help us to overcome the fault. He will assuredly help us to overcome the most violent, the most inveterate temptations.
5. By having a little picture blessed by a priest of St. Michael in our prayer books, wallets, or upon our walls or our cars, say:

O Glorious St. Michael, I love you! O Glorious St. Michael, help me!

6. By praying to St. Michael to defend the world against the devil and save us from the awful evils that threaten us. Let us occasionally offer our Mass, Communion and Rosary in honor of St. Michael.

I have witnessed firsthand "Catholics" who do not know the St. Michael Exorcism Prayer

When Catholics do not know their prayers or lack faith, then we know the battle is becoming more heavy and fierce! This is the apostasy! Satan wages war on all sides of us!!! We must always be prepared and stand guard to fight our enemies through this marvelous prayer. Everyday, Satan wishes to snatch souls away with him.
